The ugly duckling

On a hot summer day, the eggs of a duck started hatching. Cute little ducklings came out from the eggs. But one of the duckling was different.

The other ducklings would not play with this duckling. This made him feel very sad and he saw himself in the water and said "I am very ugly my brothers and sisters don't play with me".

He left his home and started living alone. Few years passed and one day while he was swimming in water he saw a group of other ducklings that looked exactly like him.

He then understood that he was not a duckling but was a beautiful swan.

Moral of the story is:

Do not judge a person by his looks
